

Please do not reduce the restrictions on the no call list. It is wonderful not getting those invasive calls at all hours of the day. The people that want to sell stuff can use other means - like the mail system and help the economy at the same time.